Dr. Williams's Trust

The Trust includes a number of benefactions for which the founder, the Rev. Daniel Williams, D.D. (b. 1643, d. 1716), made provision in his will. The most important of these is now the Library, which has been greatly enlarged and developed since his time.

Besides the Library, the benefactions include grants of money to poor ministers, and to widows of ministers ; grants of books to ministers ; bursaries to undergraduate students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry at the University of Glasgow ; post-graduate divinity scholarships for students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry in approved Theological Colleges.

Provision is also made by the Trust for special Ministers in Wales to do missionary and evangelising work in aid of the weaker churches, or in districts where there is no regular ministry.

The Trustees also give bursaries and scholarships to be held at the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen, and exhibitions for boys and girls in the County Schools, Wrexham. They contribute to the maintenance of the Dr. Williams' School for Girls (Secondary) at Dolgelley, North Wales. For information as to the institutions named in this paragraph, applications should be made to them locally, and not to the Secretary of the Trust.

GRANTS TO POOR MINISTERS.—Sums ranging usually from £10 to £20 not in aid of inadequate salaries, but to meet special emergencies or to help in education of children. It has been the practice for many years to restrict these grants to ministers of Baptist or Congregational Churches. Retired ministers are not eligible.

Part postage is also paid in suitable cases on books borrowed from the Library by country readers who are nonconformist ministers. Further particulars may be obtained on application.

GRANTS TO WIDOWS OF MINISTERS.—These are made for the same purposes as those to ministers, but are not restricted to members of Baptist or Congregational Churches. The amount available for these grants is less than for those to ministers.

GRANTS OF BOOKS (called in the founder's will "Bibles and good practical books to be given to the poor").—These grants are made only in June of each year. Applications may be made at any time up to the middle of April in each year ; if any grant is made the books are sent out in the following July. The books given are intended to help ministers in their studies. They are new books, and are not given from the Library.

GLASGOW BURSARIES (Undergraduate) tenable at Glasgow University, up to the value of £100 per annum for 3 or 4 years.—Prospectus forwarded on application. Candidates must be of South Britain. Applications for Bursaries must be sent in not later than March 1st in each year.

DIVINITY SCHOLARSHIPS of the value of £85 per annum for 2 years tenable at any approved Theological College or University. Applications before the 1st of June in each year. Prospectus may be obtained on application to the Secretary.

For all the foregoing, inquiries must be made of the SECRETARY, who will supply further information as required.

THE LIBRARY.—Primarily a Theological Library intended for the use of Ministers, Students, and other persons engaged in the study of Philosophy, Theology, Ecclesiastical History, the History of Religion and kindred subjects, it will also be found useful for the study of History, Sociology, the History of Language and Literature, and Classical Literature both Ancient and Modern.

The Library does NOT supply Fiction, or books on Mathematics, Music, Natural History, Physical Science, or Medicine; nor does it supply Elementary Text Books or Class Books.

Books are lent to persons over twenty-one years of age, duly introduced and guaranteed in accordance with the regulations laid down by the Trustees.

Copies of the Regulations and forms of application for admission may be had on application personally, or by post, to the Librarian.

There is no subscription, but as only a limited sum of money is available each year for the purchase of books, gifts of money or offers of books are gratefully received. A form of bequest appears below.

Readers having books sent to them are required to pay carriage on receipt of the books.

The Library is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., except Saturday, when it closes at 1 p.m.

The Library is closed from the Thursday before Good Friday to the following Tuesday, inclusive; during the whole month of August; from Christmas Eve to New Year's Day, inclusive; and on Bank Holidays.

The Reading Room is also closed on the last Thursday in January, March, June and October.

Payments in connexion with the Library should be made by stamps or Postal Orders for small amounts. If cheques are sent they should be made payable to DR. WILLIAMS'S TRUST.

All parcels and communications relating to the Library should be addressed to—

The LIBRARIAN, Dr. Williams's Library,

Notes and News.

TRUSTEES.—Since the last issue of the Bulletin the Trust has lost Mr. Sydney Martineau, who died on December 19th, 1945. He had been a Trustee since 1927.

Mr. Ronald Bartram, Mr. O. Furnival Jones, The Rev. Magnus C. Ratter and Mr. F. Alan Martineau have been appointed Trustees.

LIBRARIAN.—This fiftieth number of the Bulletin is also the last on the title-page of which Mr. Stephen Jones will appear as Librarian. His retirement, on March 31st, 1946, brings to a close a family association with the Library of sixty years, for his father became Secretary and Librarian in 1886 and he himself as a boy of six came to live at the Library, then in Grafton Street, sixty years ago. In January, 1904, he first began to give assistance in the Library, of which later, in 1914, he was to become Sub-Librarian, and in 1925, Chief Librarian. Although he has chosen the present moment as the most convenient for his retirement, readers will still see something of him during a transition period while the many and intricate tasks of the Library are being handed over. It is hoped also that for many years to come he will be a not infrequent visitor and advisor at the Library which has been the scene of his life's work. Under his constant care it has grown greatly in extent and usefulness and he knows it with an intimacy his successor cannot hope to rival.

The office of Librarian will be taken over by the present Secretary of the Trust—a return to an earlier arrangement which was the practice until Mr. Jones was appointed Librarian in 1925.

DIVINITY SCHOLARSHIPS.—In the Divinity Scholarship examination in September last an Exhibition of £70 for one year was awarded to J. Elfed Davies of Regent's Park College, Oxford.

DONATIONS.—The Library is fortunate in receiving from time to time valuable and interesting gifts of books. In the present Bulletin will be found a list of the books which form a bequest from the late Mr. George Green Loane.
